

He has often seen his father chase the fowls out of the garden and so he gives them a good bath too! Blacky, the cat, doesn't like water at all. He usually dashes up a tree or into the house. By this time his mother has heard the water running and starts to call him. Joseph, the servant, pokes his head out of the kitchen window, but soon closes it when he sees Tony with the hose! When his mother calls him from the window of the lounge, she usually has to dodge because Tony loves to give the flowers in the lounge some water too! It is no wonder that Spotty dashes into the street and that Joseph closes the kitchen windows!

What a mess the lounge is in! As for Tony, he is mud from head to foot. It is no wonder that Mrs. Brown gets angry and gives him a scolding. Tony is too dirty to come indoors. Mrs. Brown has to go to his room to fetch some clean clothes!

They are going to lock the store room now, but I think Tony will manage to find the key!

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage carefully before answering the questions. (25)

Naughty Tony

Little Tony Brown is only four years old, but I think he is the most mischievous boy in town! He does not mean to do any harm, but somehow he is always in trouble.

At the moment Mr. Brown is very busy in his garden. He spends most afternoons planting, watering and raking. Little Tony usually stands and watches his father. Sometimes he even helps his father. He thinks there is no one like his father and he is always imitating him. He usually follows his father around the garden like a puppy dog.

When Mr. Brown goes to office in the mornings, Tony can usually be seen in the garden. He waits until his mother's back is turned. Then he drags the hose out of the store room and screws it onto the tap. Then he turns the tap on. By the time he has picked up the nozzle of the hose the furniture on the veranda is sopping wet! He waters the weeds at the side of the house - he doesn't know the difference between a weed and a flower! He usually washes down the walls of the house too. Why he does it, I don't know!
